BOOK SYNOPSIS

As a boy in Brooklyn's Red Hook projects, James McBride knew his mother was different. But when he asked about it, she simply said "I'm light-skinned." Later he wondered if he was different too, and asked his mother if he was black or white. "You're a human being," she snapped. "Educate yourself or you'll be a nobody!" And when James asked what colour God was, she said "God is the colour of water." As an adult, McBride finally persuaded his mother to tell her story - the story of a rabbi's daughter, born in Poland and raised in the South, who fled to Harlem, married a black man, founded a Baptist church, and put twelve children through college.
