BOOK SYNOPSIS

"Since its inception in the 1960s, the National Assessment of Educational Progress (NAEP) has become the "gold standard" for monitoring the academic progress of Americas children. In this book, an extensive collection of perspectives traces the evolution of NAEP, from Francis Keppels testimony before Congress in 1962 and the awarding of the assessment contract to the Educational Testing Service (ETS) in 1983 to NAEPs role in the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001."
